TO: APPLICANTS FOR ADMISSION AND THEIR FAMILIES

The Pines at Bristol Center for Nursing & Rehabilitation has a provider agreement with the State of Connecticut to provide services to Medicaid recipients pursuant to Title XIX of the Social Security Act, and to provide services to Medicare recipients pursuant to Title XVIII of the Social Security Act.

State and federal law and regulations impose the following limitations on the advance payment and deposit requirements of nursing homes:

- No nursing home may request an advance payment or deposit from a Medicare beneficiary for any services or supplies covered by Medicare as a condition of admission.
- A nursing home may request an advance payment or deposit of up to one thousand five hundred dollars ($1,500.00) from an applicant who has applied for Medicaid, provided such payment or deposit is held in an account for the applicant's benefit and returned to the applicant when he is determined eligible for Medicaid.
- No nursing home may request an advance payment or deposit from a Medicaid recipient as a condition of admission.
- Upon admission, The Pines at Bristol Center for Nursing & Rehabilitation requires self-pay residents or their responsible party, to pay the facility an advanced room and board payment equal to thirty (30) days at the current self pay per diem rate.

Public Act 91-8 (9/4/91) provides that nursing facilities with a census of 30% or less of private pay residents shall not be required to admit an indigent person on a waiting list during the subsequent six (6) months, provided that no bed be held open for more than (30) thirty days.

In compliance with State and Federal laws, The Pines at Bristol Center for Nursing & Rehabilitation admits and treats all residents equally, regardless of race, color, sex, national origin, or source of payment.
